SUBJECT: Agency's Contact Point for CSRA Technical Questions

At the last IAG meeting on October 31, 1978, the question was raised as to where in the Commission agencies could call for technical information about the intent and meaning of the different parts of the Civil Service Reform Act.

I have asked the "Secretariat on Civil Service Reform" staff to be the technical point of contact in the Commission for agencies. During this transition period, if you have any specific questions about the general meaning, intent, or implementation of the Act, please call the Secretariat at 254-6234. They will either answer your question, or get the answer for you.
